ECONOMIC IMPACT of the Metal Can Industry

TOTAL U.S. CAN PRODUCTION APPROXIMATELY 142 Billion Cans

National

$81.56 billion
TOTAL ECONOMIC IMPACT

$27,535,901,100
Can Industry

$39,129,390,300
Industry Suppliers

$14,898,698,800
Induced Activity

$15.12 billion
WAGES PAID

$2,517,222,900
Can Industry

$7,924,605,400
Industry Suppliers

$4,681,149,100
Induced Activity

164,709
TOTAL JOBS

22,294
Can Industry

78,063
Industry Suppliers

64,352
Induced Activity

TAXES PAID

$2.25 billion
STATE & LOCAL TAXES PAID

$3.78 billion
FEDERAL TAXES PAID

The Can Manufacturers Institute (CMI) is the national trade association of the metal can manufacturing industry and its suppliers in the United States. The can industry employs more than 20,000 people with 33 plants in the U.S. and its territories.

LEARN MORE ABOUT THE CAN MANUFACTURERS INSTITUTE:

LEARN MORE ABOUT CMI MEMBERS:

All information provided by the Can Manufacturers Institute.
Statistics calculated by John Dunham & Associates, 2026.

601 13th Street, NW | 12th Floor Industrious | Washington, DC 20005
www.cancentral.com

Can Manufacturers Institute